

Kaoshiung Medical University

Procedures Table for the Master and Doctoral Students Thesis Examination

Academic Year Semester

1. The announcement of commencement of thesis examination by convener.
2. Introduction of Master/Doctoral Candidates. (by convener or mentoring professor)
3. Introduction of thesis examination committee members by convener.
4. Presentation of thesis by candidates (20 minutes for master candidates; 60-90 minutes for doctoral candidates)
5. Evaluation on master/doctoral candidates by thesis examination committee members.
6. The walkout of graduate students, the finalization of examination results by committee members.
7. The calculation of examination results by convener, the announcement of examination results (not to candidates yet).
8. The record of examination results and signatures by committee members.
9. The entering of graduates students for announcement of examination results.
10. Signature by committee members on the certificate of the passing of thesis examination.
11. The official announcement of examination results by convener.